

OXYGEN DIGITAL

R E C R U I T M E N T

Delivery Consultant

Overview

Oxygen Digital is a start-up focused entirely on the Artificial Intelligence & Data Science industry across Europe. Our vision is to be recognised as the most influential provider of Artificial Intelligence specialists globally within 5 years.

Due to high demand from our customers we're now at the point where we're looking to grow. We are seeking driven individuals looking to learn the business starting in a Delivery role with ambition to transition into a Specialist Consultant role over the coming months.

Duties & Responsibilities

As a specialist Delivery Consultant your core areas of responsibility will include:

- Daily engagement with new candidates using the latest social media search tools.
- Work closely with the Sales Consultants to understand market demands and tailor your approach based on the needs of our customers.
- Pre-screening and qualification of new Data Engineers & Data Scientists from across the world to understand capability, motivation and experience.
- Involvement within industry events and meetups across Europe to help grow the Oxygen Digital brand, network with industry leaders and meet new candidates to help grow your pipeline for the future.
- Opportunities to travel on business across Europe to ensure Oxygen Digital is represented onsite at our customers offices whilst spending time with candidates to ensure ongoing relationships are being built.
- Responsibility to develop and grow your knowledge of Data Analytics whilst sharing your expertise and collaborating with the rest of the team.

Your Experience

- Excellent background in sales with drive and ambition to succeed in a specialist role.
- You should be at least a College or 6th form graduate with a clear view on why you feel you would make a great Consultant.
- Passion for learning, self-development and a keen interest in technological developments.
- Be an outgoing person who loves being part of a small team.
- Have a desire to work in a start-up environment.

What does Oxygen Digital offer?

- Market leading commission structure.
- Clearly defined career path with clear targets and competencies that are personal to you.
- 20 days holiday + an extra day with every year of service + the office will be closed from Xmas Eve – New Years.
- Chance to travel – if you're travelling on business why not go on a Friday? You will get two ODR travel passes to use per year. These can be traded in for 2 nights extra in a hotel so you can take a friend whilst we'll extend your flights to the Sunday.
- Annual company holiday for the top performers in the business.
- Free gym membership and extended lunches to use it.
